

SEEN, HEARD AND TOLD

By W. W. WHITAKER
When he feels like it.

(By Mrs. WWW)

The editor, making one of his frequent trips in the Ford around and about the County, had this to say:

Mabel took me riding out on the Riverdale Road recently. Saw where old man Jeff Staten used to live now his home is occupied by a grand son, Charlie Brunson.

We saw the handsome home built by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Joiner before they moved to Paducah, Ky. and the home of "Little" Jeff Staten, Avert McElwath, E. L. Boteler, Jr. & Sr.

This property, in years gone by, was owned by several wealthy men. Today, the road through Riverdale to Hardy is owned by many small farmers.

Just South of New Highway No. 7 we saw the fine country home of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Tornell.

Many of these homes are air-conditioned and equipped with television, and all modern appliances.

On another trip we drove down the blacktop road which eventually leads to the Carroll County Gold Coast.

We entered this road at Earl Horton's new home, on the E. H. White place, south of town, passed by dozens of newly built homes and saw Charles Perry's comfortable country home, the fine property owned by Guy Branscome; turned into the road road which leads back eastward to 51 Highway and the new houses located in this neighborhood.

Back on Highway 51 we noticed that a brick building is going up on Quinn's property, and from the looks of the various Cadillacs, Oldsmobiles Buicks and Chryslers parked at the Monte Cristo, we knew that the coke and coffee society crowd was in session.

Over on the east side of 51 we noticed with sadness that Allen Cooper's garage is shut down and for rent.

Looks like some business concern, needing housing, could be persuaded to use this property, not only as an investment for themselves, but for the good of Grenada.

Every time a wage earner goes to work, the community in which he lives prospers.

Well, Saturday must have been a hot one, it was too hot for Andrew, to go fishing.

I am mighty sorry my good friend Henry Ray Sr. is ill at his home. Later, he is reported as improving.

Paul Johnson, candidate for Governor, spoke to a small and hot and silent group of citizens Tuesday afternoon, July 6, in the square. He had a lot of projects lined up against the time when he becomes Governor of Mississippi. Oh, me.

Because of Mr. Whitaker's illness we were unable to attend the political speaking in the square Tuesday evening, however we have been assured that ex-Gov. Wright made a fine impression here. He is, of course, well known and respected for his ability, integrity and for the soundness of his platform.

Lt. Gov. Carroll Gartin, who seeks a second term as our Lt. Gov., also made a brief announcement. He is a most capable and splendid young man, has served with great efficiency under Gov. Hugh White, and with all respects to his political opponents, WE ARE FOR Carroll Gartin for Lt. Governor. When Senator Eastland had Gartin for an opponent in the senator race, we told Gartin we would be with him next time.

We thank him again for telephoning his residence Tuesday night, asking about Mr. Whitaker.

There is something sweet and unforgettable about the concern Mr. Warner Horton, now of Clarksdale, has for his seriously ill brother, Mr. Finley Horton. He was here at his bedside at Grenada Hospital early this week.

Be sure to hear Judge J. P. Coleman, candidate for Governor, speak in the square Friday (tonight) at 8 o'clock.

Mr. James Mayes Webb Dies Suddenly

Funeral services were held Tuesday, July 5, at 3 o'clock at the First Baptist Church in Grenada for Mr. James Mayes Webb, 66, who died suddenly Monday evening at 8:30 at his home on Line Street of a heart attack.

Rev. John Landrum, pastor, officiated, and burial was in Woodlawn Memorial Park with Garner Brothers Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Webb, a highly respected citizen of Grenada, recently retired from his duties as an agent with the National Life and Accident Insurance Co. after 26 years service.

A member of the First Baptist Church, he was also a Mason and, Knight Templar. He was until recently, a member of the Grenada Lion's Club.

Mr. Webb was a native of Port Gibson and after working in Greenwood came to Grenada in 1929.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Minnie Ferrell Webb, a daughter, Mrs. Ray Horton and a granddaughter; three sisters, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Harris and Miss Webb of Martinsville.

Palbearers were J. D. Quinn, E. R. Green, E. W. Hanna, Harry Horton, Tommie Lane, Milton E. Becker and W. A. Lomax.

Out of town relatives attending included Mr. Webb's three sisters and Mrs. Webb's sister Mrs. Wilson and 2 sons of Jackson, Miss.

GRENADA COUNTY "FARM OF THE WEEK"

If this is YOUR farm, you can get, without charge, a nicely mounted picture of the farm, and you must come to the Grenada County Weekly and identify it.

While you are in the GCW office, we hope to interview you and get a story, for subsequent publication, about this property and about your family.

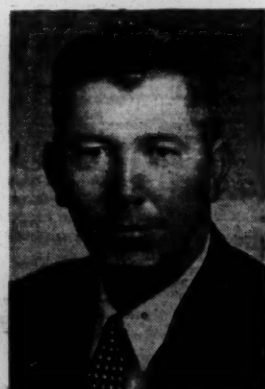

If you need other photographs of the above, either the size shown, or larger, or of postal cards, the GCW can, and will arrange for them. A reasonable charge, of course will be made for these reproductions. Let us show you samples.

The cup is being presented to him by Mr. Wichers, Master of the convention.

To Speak Here Friday Night June 8 - Tonight

Judge J. P. Coleman will speak in the public square in Grenada Friday, July 8 (tonight) at 8 p. m.

A large crowd is expected to come, hear him.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Page are enjoying a weeks vacation at Mobile.

Mrs. W. F. Benoist Dies In Coffeeville

Mrs. W. F. Benoist of Coffeeville, died suddenly Thursday evening at 6:30, June 30, 1955, in the yard of her home of a heart attack. Her husband found her body only minutes after her death. She was 75.

Mrs. Benoist, a devout member of the Coffeeville Baptist Church, is survived by her husband, and children, Otis Benoist, Sr. of Grenada; Mrs. Ivy Criss of Camp McCain area; W. E. Benoist and Mrs. C. H. Spearman of Coffeeville, and several grandchildren.

Interment services were held on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Other Grenadians attending besides the relatives, included Messrs. N. R. Paschal and Byron Hunter.

Homecoming Day At Zion

There will be Homecoming Day at Zion Grove Church of God of Prophecy Sunday, July 10, 1955 with all-day service and dinner will be served on the grounds. The public is cordially invited.

To Report To West Point

Richard Forbes youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Forbes began his official appointment to West Point Military Academy on Monday, July 4th.

He left for this assignment Friday, July 1, going by Memphis where he joined another young man, also appointed to West Point. Rep. Jamie Whitten, of our district made this appointment known on May 25 when Richard graduated at GHS. Mrs. Forbes accompanied her son to Memphis.

Swim Classes Crowded

Miss Mary Elizabeth McNeil, executive secretary of local Red Cross Chapter said "We have the biggest class, ever, this year receiving swimming instructions at the pool." About 200 are being instructed by Betty Lilly and Diane Dubard, who are assisted by Bobby Moore, life guard. Classes are at 9 and 10 a. m. every Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. Each child pays 10c for use of the pool.

Byron Hunter Issues Formal Statement To The People

Byron Hunter

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Joiner and pretty little daughter of Paducah, Ky. were Grenada visitors the past week end, leaving Tuesday to return home. They were looking after their lovely home located at Riverdale.

In the administration of the affairs of Your Chancery Clerk's Office, it has been my constant aim and purpose to render the kind of service that you are entitled to have and service that would reflect credit upon you, the people of Grenada County, and upon myself as your Clerk.

I have attempted to make some progress in equipping the office with reasonable modern equipment and methods for the convenience of the general public all of which has drawn compliments by the majority of you for which I am profoundly grateful.

At the time of my successful bid for the Chancery Clerk's Office in 1947 I repeatedly stated that SIXTEEN YEARS WAS LONG ENOUGH IN THE CHANCERY CLERK'S OFFICE. I now repeat that statement and at the same time humbly remind you that I have been your clerk ONLY EIGHT YEARS. Another one of my pleas in 1947 was to GIVE A YOUNG MAN A CHANCE and now I am the youngest man in this race in this year 1955, A. D.

In the uncertain days ahead when no one can prophesy just what will take place you need in the Chancery Clerk's Office a man with experience, vision, courage and endurance to withstand the stress that must be placed upon him.

The experience I have gained will enable me to continue to serve you with the same dedication and loyalty that I have shown in the Chancery Clerk's Office for the past eight years. I am willing and anxious to continue to carry on the work in a prompt, efficient and courteous manner and with humility plead for your help to elect me to the office of Chancery Clerk.

The rule and guide of my conduct and one of my slogans in this campaign will be the Golden Rule - "Do Unto Others As You Would Have Them Do Unto You".

Reports from over the City and County of Grenada are that the people are consistently saying "ITS HUNTER ALL THE WAY". I will be forever grateful to you if you will help.

I need and want your Counsel, your Help, your Advice, and your Vote on August 2nd.

Hoping to have the honor, Ladies and Gentlemen, to continue to be

Your Obedient Servant,
Byron Hunter,
Your Chancery Clerk

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN
Background Scripture: Habakkuk
Devotional Reading: Habakkuk 3:24, 17-19

God In Dark Days

Lesson for July 10, 1955

SOMETIMES we envy the serene faith of the prophets of old. If so, it shows we have not read the prophets carefully, for some of them had a faith that was anything but serene. Jeremiah was one of those. Habakkuk was another. Habakkuk lived during the dark days at the end of the time of the little kingdom of Judah. Reading his opening lines, one might think he had been reading our morning papers in 1955. "Why dost thou make me see thy wrongs and look upon trouble? Destruction and violence are before me; strife and contention arise. So law is slackened and justice never goes forth..." Why does God let such things go on?

This Is Hard To Believe

Habakkuk asked the same question; and got an answer from God that the Lord told him he would hardly believe. Not only was the local scene in Jerusalem and Judea, dark with violence and injustice, but the farther horizon was darker still. Out of the east the newly resurgent Babylonian empire was rising. Now empires seldom rise peacefully. They come to power with the uproar and the agonies of war. Empires arise by crushing smaller kingdoms, and Babylon was no exception. If you had asked any wide-awake Hebrew of Habakkuk's time, "What is the greatest national danger you see threatening your country?" he would probably have said: "The imperial ambitions of Babylon." Most Hebrews would have said that the Babylonians, or Chaldeans as they are often called, were the enemies of God's people. But Habakkuk is told something God says is hard to believe: "I am rousing the Chaldeans." That bitter, hasty, terrible, violent, godless nation, whose only god was their own might—God was arousing that nation to punish Judah for Judah's sins. What was God going to do about the violence and injustice in Judah? He was going to wipe it out, wipe it off the face of the ground, and use the Chaldeans to do it with.

Is The Remedy Worse Than The Disease?

We can see from reading the second part of Habakkuk's first chapter, that he could not understand, at first, how God could do such a thing as arousing the Chaldeans. How can God use devilish men to accomplish divine purposes? Is it conceivable that a God who is the Holy One, who cannot look on wrong—is it conceivable that such a God would be silent while the ruthless and cruel armies of the invaders were capturing men and treasure, cities and villages, as a fisherman takes everything in his net? Nevertheless it has often been true that God's good purpose has been set forward by men who did not know nor obey him. When Joseph's brothers sold him into Egypt as a slave, they intended no good by it. Their only motives were greed, cruelty, jealousy and revenge. But God brought good out of it. War is a terrible thing, but as Lincoln suggested, it is quite possible to believe that the horrors of a civil war are God's way of punishing a nation for the injustice of slavery. If a nation will not listen to its true prophets and repent, God can use sterner measures.

Faith Endures

Habakkuk, pursuing bravely his questioning of God, comes out at last to two illuminating thoughts which the Lord gave him. (It may be noted in passing that sometimes the questioning mind gets answered when the unquestioning mind does not.) One is that in dark days, when God is not to be seen, the man of faith must wait. "God does not settle all his accounts in October." The answer to life's riddles is not always given immediately. God's signature can be seen at the end, though not always do we recognize his handwriting at first. The other thought was this: The man of faith must not give up his faith. For faith has the power of enduring life. God may use a "bitter and hasty nation" to punish another sinful one. But God judges all nations, Chaldeans and Judeans alike. Seen in the light of history, we can perceive as a fact what Habakkuk could see only with his inward eye: that the God-defying conquering Chaldean nation would vanish soon without a trace, while the little conquered people of the Hebrews would survive, because in them was the undying seed of faith.

—HOME AGENT NOTES—

(By Bervil Elders)

Thinking about adding a new piece of furniture? A new chair? Table? As you shop about to select it, check the finish on the furniture. You will find a poor finish is shiny and thick looking. It is apt to knock off, leaving a different colored wood underneath.

A good finish is not a layer on top of wood, but is in the wood. The natural grain is visible. It has a dull sheen rather than a glassy shine. Examine surfaces to see if they are perfectly flat and evenly finished.

Professional Finish

Make your new linen, cotton or nylon dress with a professional look to it. This is done by using an interfacing material. Many patterns you will find call for an interfacing.

When you use interfacing, consider the weight and stiffness of your dress fabric. Too stiff or too heavy an interfacing fabric will change the whole effect of the garment.

Match the fabric and interfacing so they will shrink the same, or not at all. Nylon orlon or any of the new synthetics don't shrink, and a like material must be used as an interfacing.

Nurses lawn, permanently finished and sanforized, is a good interfacing for some cotton, linen and lightweight wool materials. Wash regular interfacing materials that aren't sanforized or pre-shrunk in soap and water and before using.

Meat Cooking

Any cut of meat can easily be cooked so it is tender juicy and attractive.

That is, if you follow the recommended way of cooking it. Many years of research have gone into developing meat-cooking methods.

The most important rule to remember is that all meat should be cooked at a low temperature. The same is true whether you are cooking a roast, pot roast, steak or meat for stew.

Low temperature means less watching during cooking, more uniformly cooked meat, more meat to serve, as well as meat that is more juicy, tender and attractive.

Be Careful — It's Hot

Don't let the summer rush of canning and gardening and other tasks make you forget the dangers of heat stroke and heat exhaustion. Prevention is the best line of treatment.

Take more salt into your body to offset loss of salt through perspiration.

Avoid overexertion and overexposure to direct sun rays or extreme heat and high humidity indoors. Wear a hat out-of-doors; wear light porous clothing. Eat nutritious food but avoid overeating. Drink water often, one glass at a time. Avoid ice water and alcohol.

The simple rule for first aid to a person with heat sickness is: If the patient is cold, make him warm; if he is hot, make him cool. Get a doctor at once.

Water Bath

The water bath canning method is recommended over the open kettle method for canning acid foods, as tomatoes and fruits. Open-kettle canning too often results in spoiled canned foods.

Keep the water boiling vigorously during the entire processing time. Remove and cool jars as soon as the processing time is up.

Bollworms In Cotton

Bollworms are now causing damage in cotton fields, especially in the southern part of the state, and unless you take precautions, they cut into your crop too.

Bollworm moths lay eggs in the terminal bud of the cotton plant. These eggs hatch within 3 to 5 days and the small worms which feed in the terminal bud for a day or so, then attacks close-by squares.

As the worm grows larger, it works downward on the cotton plant feeding on bolls, blooms and squares as it goes.

The most effective control of the worms is obtained when they are (Continued to page 3) small and still in the terminal buds.

Check your cotton closely and regularly to guard against this pest. Remember to treat each field as an individual problem.

When applying insecticides, treat each row as a separate problem. Remember that one lock of cotton saved per foot of row will, on an acre, pay for the application of insecticide.

When using ground equipment to apply insecticides, make sure that nozzles and spouts on dusters and sprayers are over the cotton. All airplane applications should be fagged.

For more information on controlling bollworms and other harmful cotton insects, check with your county agent for a free copy of the 1965 cotton insect control recommendations. Extension publication 292. It contains information on when to poison, how to poison and poisons to use.

One Thing Men Agree Upon!

It is in the nature of things for men to hold opinions and to argue and dispute.

Football, baseball, politics—guns, golf clubs, breeds in dogs . . . name a best, and you have an argument.

And so it goes through boats and trains—and horses and tennis and makes of planes.

But when the discussion turns to motor cars, you'll seldom get an argument if you name CADILLAC as the car of cars.

That's about as close as men come to universal agreement. And with good reason.

Who could look about him at the various styles in motor cars—and not give the nod to Cadillac for its great dignified silhouette?

Who could take the wheel of this dynamic performer—and not crown it the king of the highway?

Who could relax in its luxurious comfort for a mile or five hundred—and fail to recognize it as the finest riding car on the world's highways?

And who could look back over its illustrious past—or look about him at the people who own it and drive it today—and not acclaim it as the most distinguished car in the whole automotive world?

We feel assured that you, yourself, are aware that Cadillac is the car of cars. But that is but part of the wonderful Cadillac story.

There are economy—and value—and dependability. And there are all the other sound, practical reasons for owning a Cadillac.

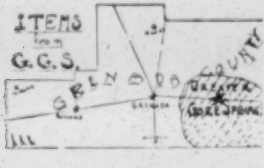

Come in and see us. Thirty minutes at the wheel . . . and you'll understand why there's no argument about a Cadillac!

ATTEND FAMILY REUNION IN DREW MONDAY

The Beck family, of which Mrs. L. A. Dubard, Sr. is a daughter, enjoyed a delightful and well planned reunion July 4 of Beck family, Drew Miss., attended by 3 generations of the family. Approximately 60 attended.

The Community House of Drew was arranged for the reception and a covered dish noon-day meal was served by the ladies.

Part of the family arrived on Sunday and attended, in a group, services at the Methodist Church.

At the dinner, the group sang "Blest be The Tie that Binds" and John McEachin, Jr., a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Dubard, Sr., said Grace.

Members of the L. A. Dubard Sr. family attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Dubard Sr., Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Dubard Jr. and two daughters, Alma and Cynthia, Mr. and Mrs. John McEachin and sons John Jr. and Ben, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hubbard, and from Jackson, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Lipscomb and 4 children and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Williams of Greenville.

In the late afternoon the families returned to their respective homes. Some coming from as far as Falls Church, Va., South Bend, Ind. and San Antonio, Texas. John McEachin Jr. and Walton Lipscomb Jr. returned to Millsaps College, and Ann and Bill Lipscomb accompanied their cousin Ben McEachin home for a weeks visit here.

BRIDGE PARTY WITH TEA QUESTS AT MONTE CRISTO

One of the loveliest parties of the early summer was given at the Monte Cristo last Thursday afternoon when Mrs. W. B. Hunt and Mrs. Walter Wilder entertained at a 14-table bridge party.

The decorations were lovely. At the entrance to the large and handsomely appointed dining room a unique arrangement of dried flowers, tinted gold and silver, interspersed with white chiffon daisies was cleverly displayed in a cypress knee holder. The tea table held a gift bouquet from Viola Quinn, and emphasized colorful glads and garden flowers and lighted tapers. Daisies, nasturtiums and colorful zennias added loveliness. These, too, were gift bouquets to the hostesses.

Cold drinks were served when the guests arrived and in the late afternoon a pretty party plate with drinks, coffee or tea, was served.

High score prize was captured by Mrs. L. D. Boone Sr., consolation by Mrs. Thomas Bell, and Bingo by Mrs. John Carter.

Seven tea guests enjoyed the event, arriving at the time refreshments were served. Mrs. George Finney of Baltimore, Md. was the only out of town guest present.

JITNEY-JUNGLE RECIPE OF-THE-WEEK

SWISS STEAK

3 lb. Round Steak — 1 Cup Flour
Salt and Pepper — 2 Tbsp. Drippings
2 Cups Boiling Water or Stock
1 large Onion, thinly sliced — 1 Bouquet Garni
1 Cup Tomato Paste — 1 tsp. Prepared Mustard

Season the flour with salt and pepper and rub into the steak. If the meat is not as tender as it might be, pound it with a mallet on the edge of a saucer while working in the flour. Melt the drippings in a heavy kettle and brown the meat well on all sides. Add the boiling water, onion and bouquet garni. Let simmer for one hour. Then add the tomato paste and mustard, and continue simmering for another hour, or until the meat is tender. If desired, thicken the gravy with a little flour. (Serves 6)

Chinese Medical Proverb

"If a medicine does not stir up a commotion in the patient, the disease will not be cured by it."

Foul-tasting medication was once considered to be most effective on account of its disagreeable flavor.

To win the co-operation of a finicky child sometimes requires the patience of Job and the persuasion of Paul. The taste of modern pharmaceuticals, however, has been greatly improved. To prepare medicine in a palatable form is the pharmacist's art. We are prepared and eager to be your family pharmacists.

We'll mince no words.

You can buy a Buick SPECIAL like the one shown here if you can buy any new car.

You can boss this big and brawny Buick Sedan for just about the price of the smaller cars—even for less than some models of the three most widely known smaller cars. The price we show here proves that.

But you can't get anywhere else for the money what you get in this Buick, or any other new Buick—and that's something you really ought to look into.

For Buick sales are soaring to all-time best-seller highs this year just because more and more people are discovering how much more automobile their dollars buy in a Buick than the same dollars buy elsewhere.

They find Buick a bigger package of sheer automobile for the money—bigger in power thrill, in stretch-out comfort, in ride steadiness, in structural solidity.

They find Buick size and styling an added prestige—Buick roadability and handling ease an added pleasure—Buick brawn and precision an added reassurance.

And they find Buick performance a thrill without peer—for where else can you get the whip-quick response and bettered gas mileage of Variable Pitch Dynaflo?

Maybe you'd better drop in and see how much real automobile and fun and deep-down satisfaction your money buys in Buick.

Whether you want the low-priced SPECIAL, the high-powered CENTURY, the extra-roomy SUPER, or the custom-built ROADMASTER—you'll find the price more than right and the trade-in deal terrific. Can you make it today?

A MESSAGE TO THE PEOPLE OF GRENADA COUNTY FROM YOUR CIRCUIT CLERK

Having served you as your Circuit Clerk for the last three and one-half years, I feel that it is my duty to call to your attention the very serious responsibilities of this office. The duties of the Circuit Clerk now require the most capable and experienced person that we can elect.

Under the new voter-qualification law, the Circuit Clerk is required to give a written examination to every applicant to register to vote, and the manner in which these examinations are given will largely determine what kind of an electorate we are going to have in this County. It is going to take a man who has the experience, the know-how and the courage to deny the right to register to those who should not be permitted to register, I have demonstrated that I could do a good job as your Circuit Clerk, and I earnestly beseech you to support me.

The Office of Circuit Clerk is not an object of charity or a dole for any one. Its duties are too important, particularly at this critical time, for us to take a chance on anyone who has not fully demonstrated his ability to handle the office.

Sincerely your friend,

CHARLIE WORSHAM

Mississippi Polio Less After Salk Shots Given

The polio rate among Mississippi children who did not receive Salk vaccine is 10 times higher than in the population taking the shots, the State Health Dept. said today.

Dr. A. L. Gray, director of the Preventable Disease Control Division, said of the 109,000 children who got the first Salk shot, only four developed polio of a mild non-paralytic type.

Forty cases of polio were reported in the non-participating group of nine years of age and under, 22 of them paralytic.

"Polio incidence is ordinarily high among those children in the six, seven and eight-year-old groups", Gray said. But these groups which received Salk shots "now have the lowest incidence."

Dr. Gray said 72 polio cases have been reported this year as compared to 95 in 1954 and 100 in 1953 at the same time of year.

Dr. R. A. Clanton, director of the Grenada County Health Dept., states that the local health department will have the vaccine through July 9 for children of the first and second grades whose parents have signed the consent form.

Paul Johnson Spoke Here Tuesday

Paul Johnson tore into Fred Sullens, Editor of the Jackson Daily News, with the dexterity of an enraged Marine making a charge onto an enemy foxhole.

Johnson said, "Last time I did not take any issue with Sullens because it only meant that he would sell more papers and put more money in his pocket."

"Now that he is nothing but an educated lackey, I shall give him the attention he so richly deserves."

"He put up a big front until the financial skillet got too hot for him to handle, then he sold out and left his loyal employees hanging high and dry."

"Evidently, the lack he suffered in this transaction added his alleged brain", Johnson continued his attack on Sullens when, during his talk on segregation, he suggested that it would be a good idea if we could ship some of the Negroes set on integration to our integrating yankee neighbors. "At the same time he said, "we could even send Fred Sullens with them."

Johnson turned to the planks of his platform and continued to point out that the five-year tax exemption program now will not draw the necessary industry into Mississippi. "What industry is interested in is a fair lifetime taxation program, and unless we can offer them that, then we will continue to remain near the bottom of the ladder in industrial growth."

Johnson also covered the proposed reorganization of the State Government, pointing out that the legislative group that made this study, stated that it would not affect the efficiency of the government and that it would save the tax payers of Mississippi $3,000,000 each year. Johnson stated, "this money could be used to finance the old age pension of $50 as a minimum for those eligible to receive it."

Johnson also said, "many of our municipalities are in dire need of additional funds to meet and solve the problems now confronting them. I shall work with and cooperate with the municipal officials in their search for these needed sources of revenue."

"Queen Bee" To Speak Here Tuesday, July 12

Mrs. Mary D. Cain of Summit, "Queen Bee" candidate for Governor of Mississippi is scheduled to speak here at 8 o'clock Tuesday, July 12. She will speak in the square.

Mrs. Cain's platform centers around a "grass roots government" approach. She favors ending much of the state bureaucracy and repeal of the $24 1/2 millions in taxes added by the recent special session of the State Legislature and offers what she terms "the only sensible approach" to the school and segregation problem.

Mrs. Cain, who will be 51 in August, is the wife of John L. Cain of Summit, owner of Cain Service Station. She is a past state president of the Mississippi Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, past president of the Miss. Federation of Press Women, Conductress of Edith Chapter No. 87, O. E. S., and a member of the Baptist Church of Summit which she has served for the past three years as Superintendent of the Intermediate Dept. of the Sunday School. At the national level she is a member of the Board of Directors of the Congress of Freedom, a coalition of patriotic societies; the National Organization for Repeal of Federal Income Taxes; the United States Day Committee and the National Institute of Applied Citizenship.

She has been editor-manager of the Summit SUN since April, 1936.

This is Mrs. Cain's second bid for the Governor's chair. In 1951, the first woman ever to seek the office she placed fifth in a field of eight.

Blue Cross Lists 290,403 For State

Richard C. Williams, executive director of the Mississippi Hospital and Medical Service (Blue Cross) said Tuesday that the local plan now has 290,403 subscribers, which means that one of every eight Mississippians is covered by Blue Cross. Mr. Williams also stated that the net gain in enrollment for the first six months of 1955 was 9882.

The announcement quoted Richard M. Jones, Chicago, director of the Blue Cross Commission, as saying that the membership growth "is proof that the American people are finding their greatest security in meeting the cost of hospitalization through voluntary, non-profit health care plans like Blue Cross."

Soil Conservation News (By Rex R. Blue, SCS)

New cooperators of the Grenada County Soil Conservation District are Pete Gray, Grenada; Mrs. John Little and W. L. Harris of Holcomb. Farm plans have been revised on C. A. Williamson, M. J. Whitten and Clayton Carpenter. These farmers will be assisted by the District in carrying out Soil and Water Conservation plans on their farms.

Farm ponds have recently been staked out on the farms of Charles Ligon, J. B. Bailey and L. J. Doak. The ponds will be constructed as soon as equipment is available.

Sixty-five Grenada County farmers received black bass to complete stocking their ponds. Blue gill bream were placed in the ponds last fall. The ponds are stocked at the rate of 1000 bream and 100 bass per acre. To obtain best results, the ponds are fertilized with one hundred pounds of commercial fertilizer per acre beginning in the Spring and continuing until fall. The applications of fertilizer are repeated when the water becomes clear to a depth of about 20 inches.

Mr. E. F. Glaser, president of the Kraetzer Cured Lumber Company states that Coastal Bermuda planted on their farm at Leflore last year made an excellent hay. Other farmers have reported the same results from plantings on their farms.

If you are interested in getting a soil and water conservation program started on your farm, contact your District Commissioners or local SCS workers.
